

We value obtaining Internet service from an independent ISP such as Sonic.net, and BellSouth's request would badly affect us as consumers with regards to our available choice of Internet Service for broadband.